

September 30th, 2019

Dear Parents,

The South Sacramento Youth Arts Collective will begin its Winter, 2019 season on Saturday, October 5, 2019 at John Still K-8 School. The Academy is open to all students who live in the South Sacramento Community in the 2nd – 8th grades.

For the Winter, we will offer:

- Choir
- African Drumming and Dance
- Piano
- Digital Media
- Step
- Acting
- Drumline
- Hip Hop
- Cheer

Students will be able to choose their top two choices of the above genres. This time around there will be limits to the number of scholars enrolled in each genre, each class will be filled on a first come, first serve basis. If your first choice is filled, we will then enroll your scholar in their second choice.

You can turn in your Participant Information Sheet at one of our after-school program sites or on the first day of class.

In addition, all participants will be exposed to an hour of academic enrichment (I-Ready – Reading/Math On-line Academic Program) as part of the program.

Our program is split into two semesters. 1st semester will conclude with an end of the year Holiday performance December will conclude with an end of the year in the month of December for parents and community supporters. 2nd semester will conclude with a Spring Concert in April.

There will also be MANDATORY parent meetings at John Still Middle School on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12th or October 19th, 2019 9:30am – 10:30am in the cafeteria.

For more information contact Jordan Bush, Program Coordinator at (916) 426-6945 or via email at cjordanbush.rfcec@gmail.com.

Sincerely
Jackie Rose, Executive Director
